so far as regards the chief topics of the day.

CASE OF MRS. SIMPSON. We learn from the Fayetteville Carolinian that at Ann K. Simpson, tried for the murder of her husband, was acquitted. The Carolinian says: " On Thursday (thanksgiving day) the case of the State against Mrs. Ann K. Simpson, for the murder (by poison) of her husband, A. C. Simpson, was taken up. She was arraigned on Monday afternoon, and pleaded "not guilty." The bill of indictment in this case occupied five pages of foolscap. Hon. Robt. Strange, Warren Winslow and Duncan K. McRae, Esqs., conducted the defence; and Mr. Solicitor Ashe and Hon. James C. Dobbin for the State.

At the time of putting our paper to press, the examination of witnesses was not closed. The examination of Drs. Mallett and Robinson, and Rev. Simeon Colton, seemed to prove very clearly the existence of poison in the stomach of the deceased; and their opinions, based upon their examinations of the contents of the stomach, and the symptoms of illness of which the deceased died, were, that he came to his death by white arsenic taken into the stomach. This having been established, other witnesses testified, that a serious disagreement happened between Mr. and Mrs. Simpson, but a short time previous to his death. That she read to a young woman, whom she employed in the house to sew, a letter from Mr. Simpson, saying that he once believed she loved him, but he now knew she loved another better. That for the sake of their friends he would continue to live with her, but she must make him a separate bed.

It was further testified that she went to an old fortune teller, who told her a good deal of nonsense; but among other things and at different times, that her husband would not live long, and that she would marry the one she loved; that she turned the cups, and saw his coffin, and predicted his early death. It was further testified that Mrs. Simpson's amours with another man was the cause of disagreement between her and her husband.

It was testified that she bought arsenic a short time before his death, and asked a gentleman what effect it had on animals and men.

Then the testimony of two boarders in the house detailing her conduct at the table on the day before Mr. S's death, throw dark and terrible suspicions upon the motives and designs of the prisoner. Her conversations but a few minutes after the death of the deceased, in regard to what the fortune-teller told her, and of her future course, all help to darken the picture and point to her as the only person who, in all reasonable probability, would have administered the drug; and yet, there is no positive testimony, to satisfy a man beyond all shadow of doubt, that it was

The counsel for the defence ably and ingeniously endeavored to convince the jury that it was quite possible, even if not probable, that the man did not die of arsenic; that the physicians may have been mistaken; or that he may have taken his own life; or that being in a feeble state of health, it was not strange that he died. The State insisted that by a chain of circumstances, each link in itself not to be relied upon, but that the whole taken together, formed a chain of events which must convince any man of the guilt of the prisoner at the bar.

The jury consisted of Chas. S. Johnson, Murdoch McKinnon, Jas. W. McCallister, Danl. Clark, Jno. A. Williams, John T. Wright, Danl. Cameron, J. B. Wright, A. McGregor, John Thames, Wm. Butler, and Jas. Price.

They retired for an hour or two, and returned a verdict of Nor GULLTY." John W. McAllister was also tried for the murder of Daniel Cutts, and acquitted. We had the pleasure on Thursday and Friday of last week of being present at the examination of the pupils of the Warrenton Female Seminary, under the supervision of the Hon. Daniel Turner. The examination of the different classes by their respective teachers, evinced, not only a thorough knowledge of their profession on the part of the teachers, but that most necessarry qualification, the art of imparting knowledge to the young minds placed under their charge. The concert on thursday evening was largely attended, and the ease and facility in performing very difficult pieces by the young ladies, is proof of the high qualifications of their teacher, Mr. John F. Brandt. We will not extend this notice of the exercises, as a friend has handed us a more detailed notice of the examination which will be found in another column. The whole closed by a splendid Ball at Goodloe's

Hotel on Friday evening, where the "Beauty and Chivalry tript it on the light fantastic toe" until a Warenton News. late hour.

NEW ORLEANS, November 13. LATE AND IMPORTANT FROM MEXICO. The schoonr Bonita has arrived here from Vera Cruz with dates to the 1st instant.

The Presidential election in Mexico had taken place. but from the returns thus far it is somewhat undecided. Arista has not a majority, but the Trait d'Union says he will certainly be elected President of the Re-Arista carries the Federal districts. He carried the Approbation of Senator Smile's Course-Great Union Meeling-Preparations to Receive Senator Downs. New ORLEANS, Nov. 12. A correspondence is published in the papers to-day- signed by eight hundred democrats, between them and Senator Soule, approving his course as Senator. A grand Union meeting takes place to-night. There Mecklenburg-J. K. Harrison, J. J. Williams and is much excitement on the subject, and it is expected there will be a tremendous outpouring of the people. The Union, by our population, is held sacred, above all earthly things.

There will be a great public meeting of both parties next week to receive and tender acknowledgments to Senator Downs. It will be an immense gathering.

MASSACHUSETTS. We shall not repine in the least, f the coalition between certain Democrats and Whig tree-soilers to carry the Legislature of this State has been defeated at Monday's election. Such combinations should be scouted by all honest men, and the sooner they are overthrown the better. Even the Whigs have got ashamed of them; and it is too late in the day for the Democrats, to begin what they have always denounced. We think there is one Democrat elected to Congress in Massachusetts; the remainder of the Congressional delegation, nine in number, are Free Soilers and Whigs. Pennsylvanian.

Boston, November 13, 1850. Union Meeting-Fugitive Slaves. A great Union Meeting will be held in Faneuil Hall on Tuesday, the 26th instant. The call is already signed by may influential citizens of both parties.

Mr. Gavin was one of the best and most highly respecel citizen of Sampson County. Many years previous to his decease, he embraced the religion of our Lord Jesus eighth advance. Christ, and proved himself a most worthy and acceptable member of the Baptist Church until his death. About the year 1822 or 23 he entered public life, and from that time, with few intermissions, he continued to be a worthy Member of the Senate or House of Commons of North Carolina. He also labored zealously for the interests of the Church of which he was a shining and lard 9 cents; molasses 27 to 30 cents; coffee 14 to 15 exemplary member-the Missionary Baptist. But he is gone-his body is consigned to the narrow limits of the cold and silent temb, and his immortal spirit has taken 65 to 70 cents per bushel; parcel pork at from 5 to 61 its flight to the God who gave it-there to reap the reward of its labors-there to bask in the sunshine of midday glory. He has left a wife and children, and a large ding to the quality. The Journal says of Naval Stores circle of friends and connexions to lament their irreparable loss. An affectionate husband, and a doting parent, his death was no doubt, in some degree accelerated by domestic afflictions. His character as a public man, and the confidence reposed in him by his fellow-citizens, can be better understood from the fact already stated, that he represented Sampson county in the Senate and House of Commons of North Carolina, with the exception of a few years, ever since the year 1822 or '23. As this is the last tribute I can pay to my departed friend. I wish to God that it were in my power to make it worthy of his character, and as enduring as his virtues. But it needs not this. The sincere regrets of this community are his best elogium, and his most fitting monument is that engraven on the hearts of his friends. The old Ten Mile Church, in which he had his membership, will long continue to mourn his loss, and in after days men will point to the seat which he occupied in his life-time, as a spot hallowed by the reccollections of a good man. The "Bugg" also at Home Again!

HAVE just returned the second time from Boston, New York, and Philadelphia, having spent nearly all of August and September in said cities, getting up our CLOTHING, every article of which was cut by myself, and mode up under my own inspection; and I presume there is no one in North Carolina now, who would be verdant enough to question my capacity after the elo-quent tribute paid to my "artistic skill" in our last Su-perior Court, by Judge, Comisel on both sides, witness-es and Jurors. I refer to the case of "Biggs es Olies and Juliors. I refer to the case of "Biggs as Oliver"—action for damages, in which I had to pay $250, in consequence of my extended reputation.

Come in, if you please, and assist me in paying off the judgment by buying our Goods. Who is there, in North Carolina, who has not heard of the Hon. George E Badger, the Hon. William H. Haywood, Jr., and "Bug" Oliver? Why "their fame is no more to be hemmed in by State lines than their talents are to be circumscribed within the same narrow limits."

We are connected, as all our customers know—and if they don't know it, they may—with no Northern House—but are Tailors ourselves—buy our own goods, and import quite as many of what we purchase in proportion to our business, as any House in this State or out of it. There is no Establishment here or elsewhere that possesses any advantages over no. We have where everyonly There is no Establishment here or elsewhere that possesses any advantages over us. We buy where everbody else buys, and we think we understand our business and buy as cheaply. We say out CLOTHING is equal to any ever offered for sale in North Carolina, and, we think superior, being judges outselves of clothing. Of that though, we will leave the public to decide, when they examine for themselves. One thing is certain—without intending to reflect upon any one—we will without intending to reflect upon any one—we will sell our clothing cheaper than the same articles can be bought for in any of the Northern cities; and as cheap as any body that comes here, who does not steal his clothing ready made. Our stock embraces Drab, Black, Blue, Green, Gray, and other OVERCOATS from $6 to $20 and apwards. CLOAKS, full circle, $18 and opwards. Frock, dress, and sack COATS from $7 to $12 and upwards. PAN-TALOONS, all colors and prices, from $4 to $8.— VESTS, all kinds and all sizes, at all prices from $1.25 to $5. In fact, every thing that can be found in any similar establishment in the Union.

We are North Carolinians. We are permanently located here, and it we sell as cheap as others, why not give us the preference? If we do not sell as good goods at as small a price, we will not ask your patronage. Call ! call ! before your purchase, at OLIVER & PROCTER'S. No. 1. R. R. R. H. Fayetteville Street. November 5th, 1850
